Grants & Scholarship Committee

The Synod of the Trinity in partnership with its sixteen presbyteries provides peacemaking travel grants to support members of the Presbyterian Church (USA) congregations for peacemaking mission trips or attendance at peacemaking conferences. The Peacemaking Offering is used for these grants. The applicant/group must reside within the bounds of the Synod and the trip must be related to peacemaking either locally or globally.

Grants are available throughout the year; however applications must be received two months prior to the trip. Grants are not retroactive. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please print.
