

NEW Initiative
for Congregationally
Connected
College Ministry

College Ministry Money Available!

Is your congregation doing something new with campus ministry or college students in your midst? The Synod of the Trinity has some money available to encourage PC(USA) congregations in college ministry. Have an idea that enables your congregation to care for and connect with college students? Let us know about it: limited small grant monies available! To find out more and get an application, contact.....

swonderland@syntrinity.org

