Mr. Ned Wetherald

Music Coordinator

Synod Assembly June 22-23, 2015

Ned Wetherald is Director of Music Ministry at State College Presbyterian Church and recently celebrated 20 years in that position. He not only plays the organ but directs five choral ensembles and a handbell choir. Mr. Wetherald often composes service music and choir anthems to meet seasonal and liturgical needs. Ned recently “retired” as Music Director of the Williamsport Civic Chorus after 18 years. Previously, Ned was Music Director at Hagerstown Presbyterian Church in Hagerstown, Maryland. Ned earned his bachelor degree in Church Music with an Organ major from Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia. He also completed his Master’s Degree in Choral Conducting at Shenandoah. Ned enjoys cooking and gardening. He is married to Karen Neff, a school music teacher and frequent assistant at State College Presbyterian Church.
