

QUESTION TO BE PRESENTED TO THE ASSEMBLY:

- a. What surprised you the most as you were researching this information?
- b. How do you see congregational vitality and presbytery vitality to be connected?
- c. As you have talked about this, are there any areas of ministry and mission that might be addressed in partnership with other presbyteries or benefitted by doing so?
- d. If you had all of the resources in the world to use for your congregations, where and how might you like to start using them?

What does it look like for a congregation to be “vital, innovative, and faithful?”

What are some things your presbytery “is” or “does” that best resources supports and encourages congregations to be their most faithful selves...?

What would your presbytery like to “do” or “be” better for congregations IF you had more bandwidth, depth, money, time, diversity, leadership, etc?

What does it look like for a presbytery to be “vital, innovative, and faithful?”
