

Three Free Workshops for

- church members
- ruling elders
- ministers

For three consecutive weeks in June, Lackawanna, Lehigh, and Northumberland Presbyteries will offer a series of important workshops on topics of concern for churches in the COVID-19 era:

- Re-opening our buildings
- The financial impact of remote worship
- The format(s) of our worship as we move forward

These Zoom workshops are open to everyone. They will begin with a presentation highlighting the major issues, followed by an opportunity for conversation. The workshops will be recorded and posted on our websites.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 2:00-3:30PM

Theological, Ecclesiastical, and Practical Issues Related to Re-opening Church Buildings.

Current PC(USA) Co-Moderator Rev. Cindy Kohlmann will help us explore the complexities of returning to our sanctuaries in the midst of the current pandemic. What is the church's faithful response in red, yellow, and green regions of Pennsylvania?

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1:00-2:30PM

Generosity in Uncertain Times. Ministry Relations Officer Rev. Ellie Johns-Kelley and Vice-President for Planned Giving Resources Karl Mattison, both from the Presbyterian Foundation, will help us address the effects COVID-19 has on stewardship and giving—now and in the future.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1:00-3:00PM (SYNOD-WIDE)

The Expanded Table: Ideas for a Hybridized Worship Experience Between People on Zoom and People in Person. Former PC(USA) Moderator Rev. Bruce Reyes-Chow will lead us in a conversation about how churches' new ways of worshiping can be combined with pre-COVID-19 worship as a both/and rather than an either/or.
