Dear Synod Moderators,

Blessings upon you and thank you for all you do for Presbyterian Women. You are greatly appreciated by the Moderator team – Kathy Reeves and me.

One of the items that has been stated over and over during our recent Regional Meetings is the need for better communications and I believe this goes both ways. To accomplish this, I am requesting you to put my email address on your newsletter send list so that I can read up on what you are doing!

Kathy and I have also discussed the possibility of writing articles occasionally that would be sent to your newsletter's editors for publication. These would be besides the articles we already write for Horizons and NewsBytes. Hopefully, this will begin to make some movement towards better communications and more open dialog.

Also, if you would like us to come to speak at your Gatherings, you just need to ask and we will make every effort to be there, whether in person or via Zoom.

So this information is handy: kathyreeves.pw@gmail.com and kathleenkeefe.pw@gmail.com

Let's stay in touch!! Blessings!
